John Inman, gave a quick spiel on the awesome run we did in Bay to Birdwood this year. 1750 cars with 50 in special category. Awesome weather, lovely 3 nights away. John and Alex and Schultzy and I from our club and the Treasurer and Son from Newry 8's Club in Maffra. Streets are lined with people waving from Glenelg Beach to Birdwood. John suggested that more club members should experience this. It is an annual event, however, we do every second year.

Pratty said Cruise for Charity is the same approximate dates next year.

Pearcey, said the club received a "Certificate of Appreciation" from the Black Dog Run.

John Inman reminded us all that Fish Holes is on again this weekend. Friday and Saturday 40th Anniversary and live bands on both nights.
